

FEED EVALUATION

Avoid product downtime by evaluating compliance prior to submission

Feed errors and poor data quality cost you lengthy reviews and rejections. GoDataFeed checks your feed against channel requirements and provides instant feedback to help you avoid missed sales.

Integration — Mapping — Optimization — Evaluation — Distribution

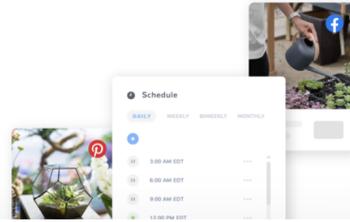

DATA INTEGRATION

Easily and safely pull in product data from one or many sources

Import product information no matter the source.

- ✓ Hosted platforms like Shopify and BigCommerce
- ✓ Web builders like Wix and Squarespace
- ✓ Open source like Magento and WooCommerce
- ✓ Flat files like XML and CSV via FTP or HTTP
- ✓ Google Sheets

CONTENT OPTIMIZATION

Modify and optimize content to reflect your brand's style on that channel

GoDataFeed gives you full creative control of your product content and how you present it to customers. Transform your product information using logic-based rules.

- ✓ Optimize titles
- ✓ Inject keywords into descriptions
- ✓ Modify values
- ✓ Replace banned text
- ✓ Add supplemental fields
- ✓ Merge values
- ✓ Clean up dirty HTML
- ✓ Calculate and add VAT
- ✓ and much more

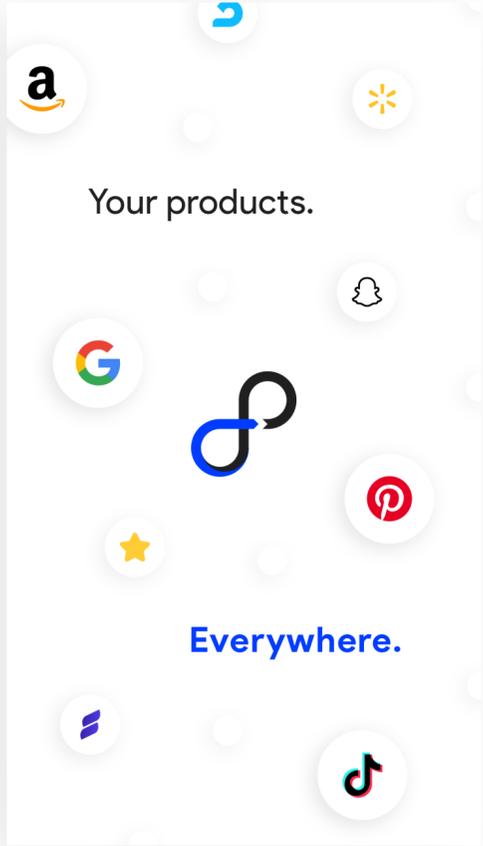

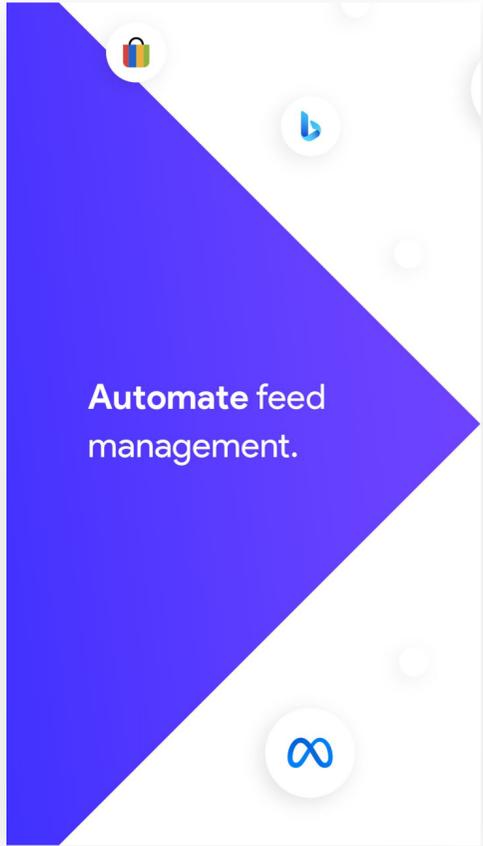

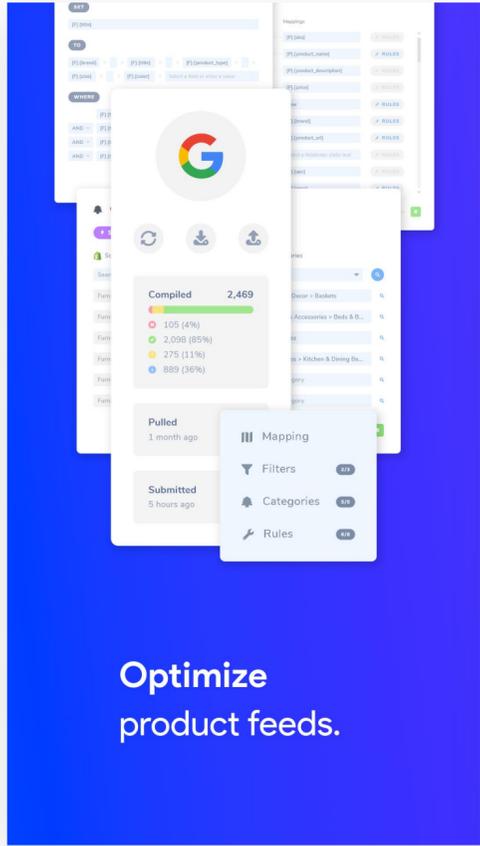

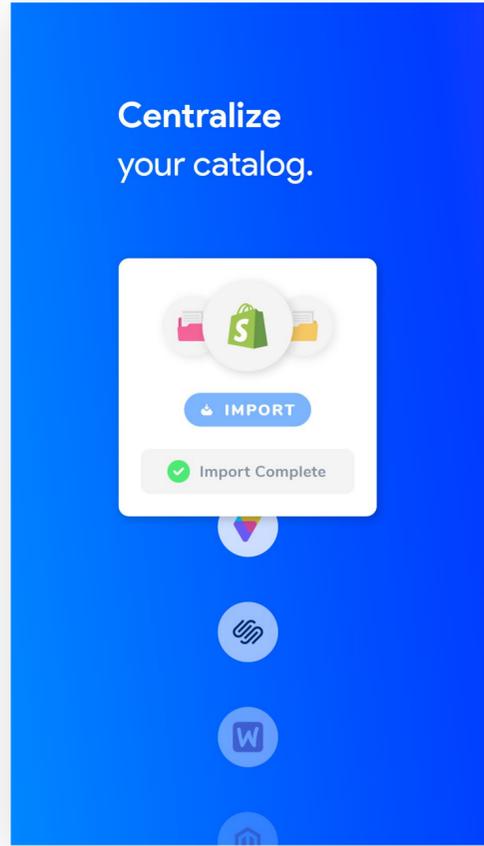

DATA MAPPING

Structure listings like a pro with guided attribute mapping

The platform guides you in mapping your store's native data values to standardized fields that match the requirements of marketplaces, paid search, and social commerce channels.

Play it straight or get creative with your product listings. You're in the driver's seat.

GREEN LINE DIGITAL, SWEATY BETTY

There was no time to waste when a brand like Sweaty Betty is on deadline to launch a multinational campaign. Green Line Digital needed to produce quality product feeds and get them up and running fast.

GoDataFeed's ability to easily add and enhance large amounts of product data drastically removed the amount of time spent on lengthy modifications. The software's ability to clone feed data and rules made the repetitive task more manageable, which allowed us to launch a quarter of the time usually spent on manual updates.

16 new product feeds in one week and go live over a 2-week period.

100% of new product feeds created with GoDataFeed affected over 50% of the client's catalog. Landon Perry said, "It has enabled us to make quick changes through an account rep to make changes."

Our client was impressed by how seamless the setup was.

—Landon Perry, Paid Search Director, Green Line Digital

Market experts at Green Line Digital stepped in to help. Product feed needs required a robust solution with customizations and seamless integrations.

Performance and usability. The software's ability to clone product data was a perfect solution for Green Line Digital's needs.

Sweaty Betty's campaign by centralizing all product data via FTP. A store was created for each of the 16 regions that was not originally part of Sweaty Betty's catalog.

To ensure proper formatting, we updated the data that were then used in the campaign.

Levels of Product Data Readiness

Product data can range from noncompliant and broken, to complete and effective — and even the best core data needs to be primed for use on any given ecommerce marketing channel.

How a feed is configured determines everything from whether or not products go live to how they'll perform on the target channel.

Broken data

- NONCOMPLIANT DATA
- MISSING REQUIRED INFO
- AFFECTED PRODUCTS INELIGIBLE

Working data

- BARELY WORKING DATA
- TROUBLED AND/OR INACCURATE INFO
- MISSING KEY OPTIONAL INFO
- ROOM FOR IMPROVEMENT

Accurate data

- DECENT WORKING DATA
- ACCURATE INFO
- MISSING KEY OPTIONAL INFO
- PRIMED FOR OPTIMIZATION

Optimized data

- STRONG COMPLETE DATA
- ROBUST REQUIRED + OPTIONAL INFO
- SEARCH OPTIMIZED
- PEAK CHANNEL PERFORMANCE
- IDEAL FOR STRATEGIC TESTING

Don't go it alone

Setting up and managing feeds requires scaling technical knowledge, data handling mastery, channel insight, and a solid toolset to make the magic happen.

GoDataFeed lets you import data from multiple sources, effectively bulk optimize it, and automate feed distribution to all your target channels with ease.

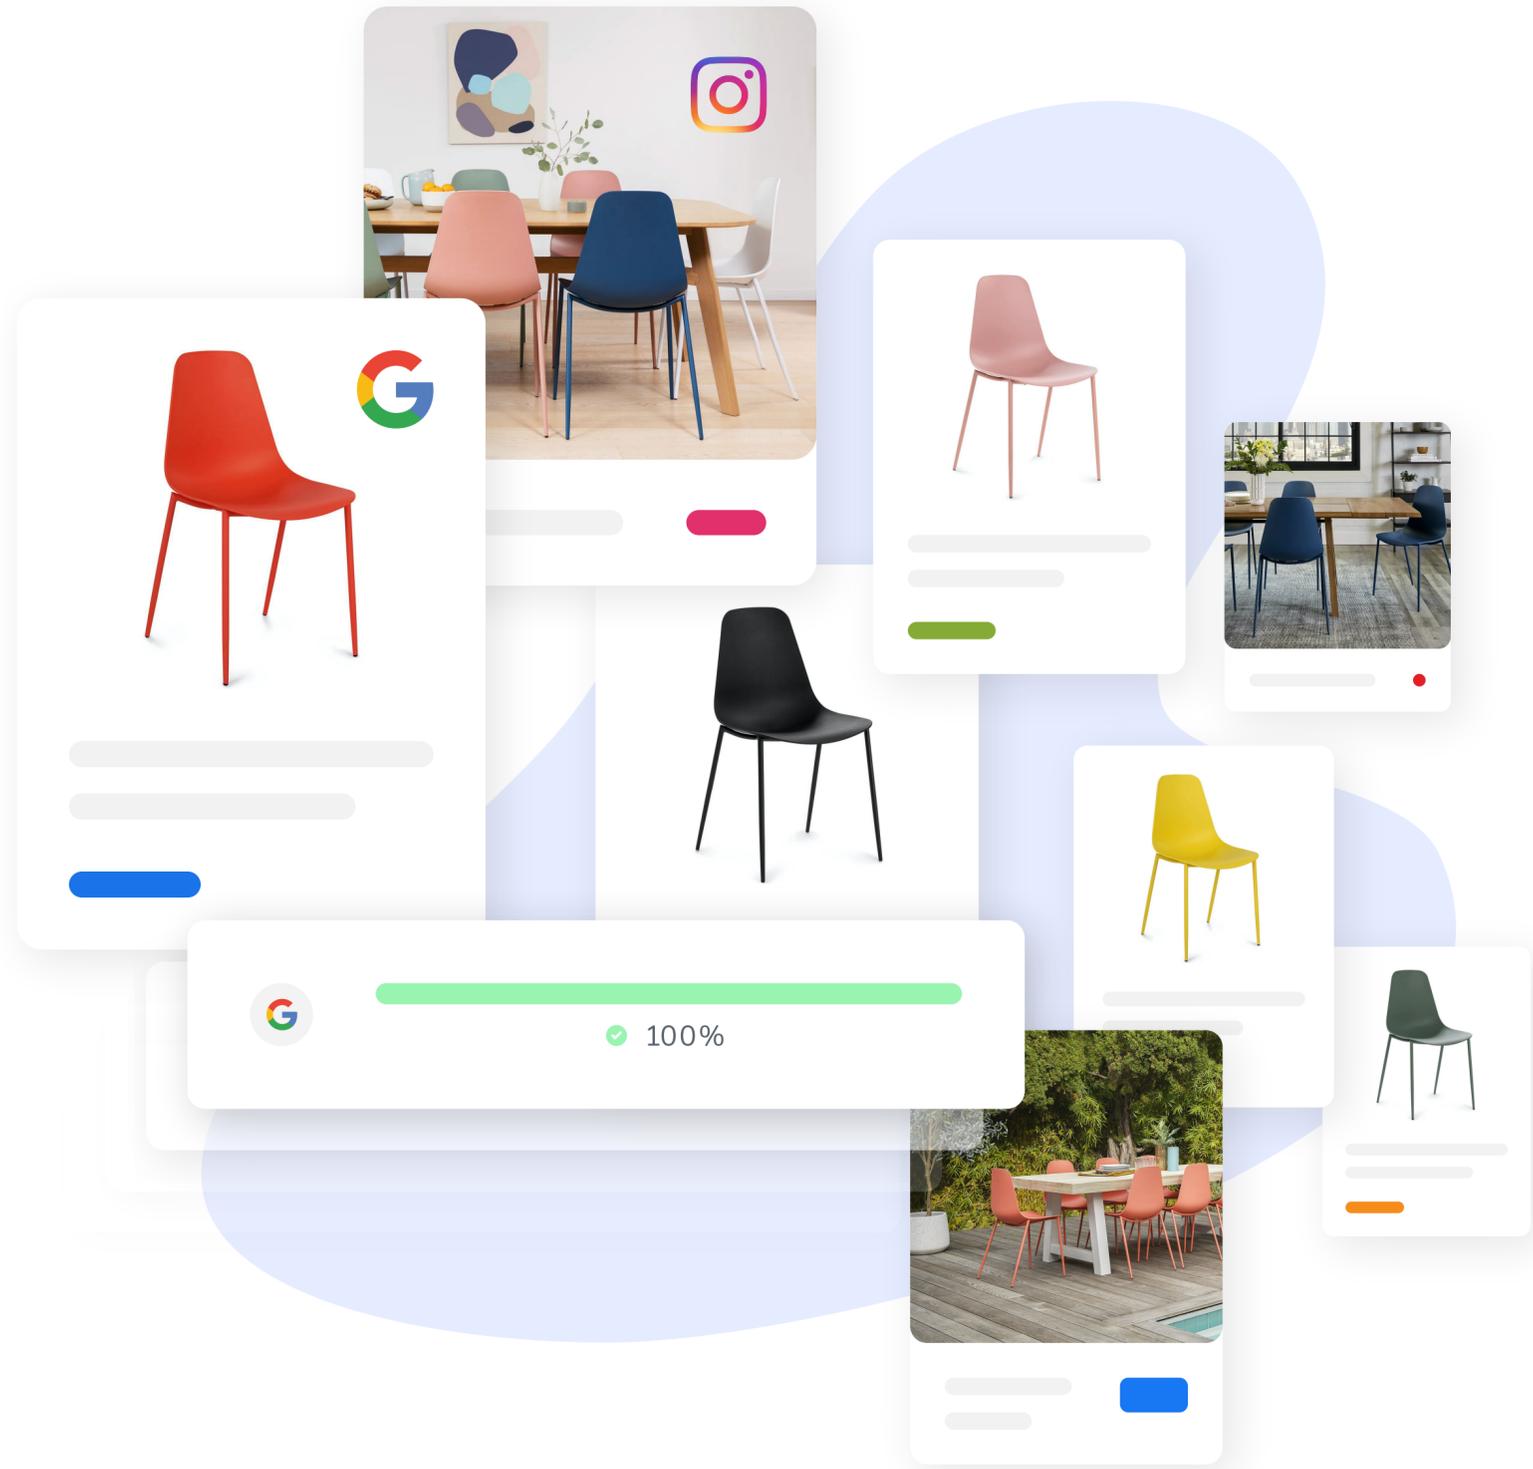

And if you find yourself needing some extra help, we can step in.
